

FEDERATION PICNIC

P-T. A. MEMBERS AND OFFICIALS TO MEET MONDAY AT
LA RAMADA

The "Picnic" held at the close of the school year by the Glendale Federation Parent-Teacher Association is always looked forward to as something worth while, consequently a gathering of Glendale's womankind is the general outcome and a day in the open is spent in the midst of delightful surroundings and pleasant companionship. Beautiful La Ramada is the selected spot and a memorable day both physically and mentally can be enjoyed, especially in these stressful times, thus giving courage and conviction to go on with the labors so necessary and vital. Every person attending is appointed a committee of one to extend the hand of good fellowship, in this way exemplifying the "spirit of Glendale Democracy."

The president, Mrs. Arthur Brown, will install the officers for the coming year and turn her gavel over to Mrs. Opal Greenwalt, president elect. The following program will be given about 1:30 p. m.:

Mrs. G. D. Roach, two vocal solos, "Joy at the Morning" (Ware), "Ashes of Roses" (Woodman).

Piano Selections by Mrs. L. N. Hagood.

Readings by Mildred McKee.

The "Treble Clef" of the Tuesday Afternoon Club will entertain in their delightful way.

Miss Genevieve Mulligan in readings.

The speaker of the afternoon will be Lester Cole.

Guests of honor will be Dr. Jessie A. Russell, State President California Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations, Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Mrs. W. A. Galentine, Mrs. H. V. Davis and others.

All are welcome. Bring your luncheon, also cup, plate and spoon. Coffee will be served at the tables at five cents a cup. Keep the date in mind—Monday, June 17th.

Press Secretary.

GUESTS FROM "THE SOUTH"

City Attorney W. E. Evans and Mrs. Evans, of 113 South Orange street, are having great pleasure in the entertainment of relatives from Kentucky and Tennessee who are in Southern California for a brief sight-seeing trip. The guests, who arrived about a week ago, are Mrs. Richard R. Bowling of Nashville, Tenn., and Miss Eva Smith of London, Ky. With these ladies, Mr. and Mrs. Evans have visited Little Bear Lake in the San Bernardino Mountains, and nearer points of interest in Pasadena. Wednesday evening they were entertained at dinner at the Sierra Madre Club, Los Angeles, spending the evening at the theatre. Tonight they will be guests of honor at a family picnic dinner at Griffith Park, and next week Mr. and Mrs. Evans plan to motor with them to Santa Barbara.

MIDDLEKAUFF CASE

BAKERS' JURY FAILS TO FIND EVIDENCE AGAINST
GLENDALE MAN

When B. Middlekauff of this city inaugurated the manufacture of a blended flour and of a "Honey Loaf" and "Emancipation" bread containing, as he declared, 15 per cent less wheat flour than the blend which the Food Administration is permitting bakers to use, and further declared that the bread could be sold at a profit at ten cents a loaf, he was laying up trouble for himself, because the bakers had satisfied the Food Administration that it could not be done for the reason that substitute flours are all more expensive than wheat. It is not surprising therefore that the bakers were suspicious of a man who was underselling them or that a bakers' jury was called to look into the matter. Meanwhile Mr. Middlekauff had sent the following telegram addressed to Herbert Hoover, Food Administrator:

Herbert Hoover,
Food Administrator,
Washington, D. C.

Am sending following telegram President Wilson today:
"I am making a delightful loaf of bread with 40% substitute which I grind myself from six perfectly blended grain elements. It is a health bread. It is entirely good enough using 50% my flour. My flour can be furnished to bakers by millers at about $8 per barrel at good profit and bread can be made and sold at 10c per loaf at good profit. It would save millions of pounds of wheat ev-

HONOR TROPHIES

GOLD PINS BESTOWED ON 14
SENIORS—MANY BRONZE
PINS AWARDED

A very pretty ceremonial took place at Union High School Friday morning at 11:30 o'clock when honor pins were bestowed upon the worthy pupils who had earned them. This custom was inaugurated five years ago by Miss Flood, Dean of the girls of Union High and Vocational Advisor. She argued that trophies were given for athletic achievement and that good scholarship should be as well rewarded. Her argument has been sustained by the excellent results which have followed the introduction of the honor pins. To win them a student must make an average throughout the year of 92 or more. This takes the form of a bronze pin of honor for the Freshman, Junior and Sophomore years, and when the record has been maintained for the four years a gold honor pin is bestowed. Those who received the gold pins Friday were necessarily members of the class of 1918. They were presented by Miss Flood with an appropriate and inspiring little speech. The list included the following names:

Ila Brooks
Harlan Durand
Anna Feaster
Margaret Gregg
Wilma Kirschman
Margaret Lusby
Myron Powers
Ethel Shaul
Jessie Shepard
Marjorie Smith
Frederick Thomasson
Inez Veysey
Frederick Weaver
Lela Whitehead

Winners of the bronze pins in the class of 1918 were: Iris Bannock, Alice Borncamp, Milton Kranz, Helen Reynolds, Marion Hoopes and Elizabeth Allen.

Honor winners in the class of 1919 were: Sabin Buck and Lois Murphy. Class of 1920: Frank Balthis, Dan Campbell, Helen Esterly, Eleanor Gregg, John Jenkins, Murray Longley, Madeline Love and Martha Ray. Class of 1921: Millicent Alvord, Margaret Frazee, Forest Jordan and Dorothy Woods.

Two more pins of special honor were presented, viz., the Activity Pins. These were bestowed by Miss Muller, head of the Art Department, who made an original little preliminary speech in which she referred to the fable of the Lion and the Mouse, declaring that the lion had always been in the limelight and now it is time the mouse should get its due. These pins, she said, signified fidelity to duty, and represented persistent, unobtrusive work without thought of reward. One was given to Irene Gervaise for exceptional work in the Art Department, the other to Lois Mock for work she had done in typing after school hours.

Prof. Moyses closed the Assembly with a little speech in which he expressed the pleasure it gave him to see these students receive recognition of the good work they have done.

"WILD ROSE" A SUCCESS

A splendid audience filled the main auditorium of the Intermediate school Friday evening to enjoy the operetta, "The Wild Rose," given by pupils of the school after thorough rehearsal by Miss Wetherby, who arranged and directed the performance. To parents it was quite a revelation of the unsuspected dramatic abilities of the girls whom they know in their every-day personalities, and also an interesting peep into the clever tricks of stagecraft devised by Miss Edna Jones, director of art instruction in the grammar schools, for the simple stage possesses no scenery and it had to be built up upon the rear wall and painted by Miss Jones and her pupils, the initial scene being torn away to show the setting of the second act. A report of the financial returns is not yet available, but they will undoubtedly be satisfactory, as not less than 400 patrons were present.

PLANS FOR THE DEFENSE OF PARIS CONTINUE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, June 15.—The war office reports artillery activity between Montdidier and the Oise river, south of the Aisne, west of Rheims and near Chemplat and Blidny. French patrols took a number of prisoners in the Champagne region. Although the situation is regarded as greatly improved, plans for the defense of Paris continue. Plans for the civil evacuation of the city are being made should that become necessary.

LONDON, June 15.—The fourth phase of the German offensive is apparently ended. The Germans have not gained appreciably on the Oise front in the past three days. Their greatest gain was in the center south of Roye, an advance of five miles with enormous losses.

POUNDS OF SUGAR TO CITY CUSTOMER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Sales to restaurants and camps are to be based on three pounds per capita per month. Women can buy 25 pounds for canning only on written statement that it is to be used for this purpose. A violation of this order, it is stated, may mean the installation of the card system of food distribution.

EMERY NOW TOP SERGEANT

Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery of 117 South Kenwood street have received a letter from their son, Sergt. Owen C. Emery of Co. C, 316 Ammunition Train, Camp Lewis, saying he had been made First Sergeant of his company June 1. He has been busy drilling "Rookies," at times being left in full charge of the new recruits while the other officers were out on the rifle range. At such times he had to have "Rookies" take the places of corporals and sergeants. He said it was strenuous work and made him realize what his officers had to contend with when he first went to camp. His company is going through all the maneuvers of war and getting all their equipment ready for going "over there." Sergeant Emery says: "Hurrah, they can't stop us. We have given a good account of ourselves already. But just wait. Kaiser Bill's knees will tremble worse than a 'Rookie's' who comes before his captain for the first time. If the people think we are going to stop with making the Huns sue for peace they are wrong. We are going to play Yankee Doodle, Dixie and the Star-Spangled Banner at the palace at Berlin and the Kaiser will dance to the first two and kneel to the last."

CLOSE OF A SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Misses Mae Cornwell and Gladys Hamilton, teachers of the Acaela avenue school were entertained Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock with a dainty luncheon by the Mothers' Club. Music was furnished by the Victrola of the school.

A number of children's garments were on display made by the mothers of the Club for the Belgian children, and these will be packed in boxes for shipment abroad in the near future.

Mrs. Ed Strong, the newly elected president, gave an interesting talk and in behalf of the Club thanked the teachers for their services during the past year.

Mrs. Thomas Curtis, assisted by Mesdames John Fox, Geo. Peterson, Will Peterson and John Grant, were the hostesses of the afternoon.

WHY NOT A "LIMIT W. S. S. CLUB"?

You know that the greatest amount of W. S. S. that may be purchased by one individual is $1000. Now, there are a number of citizens of Glendale who can well afford to buy that amount, and why should they not get together and form a "Limit W. S. S. Club"? It is a great opportunity. Let two or three men start it, then get busy with their friends and in no time a full-fledged "Limit W. S. S. Club" would result. Who will start it?

FLAG CEREMONIES

CITIZENS JOIN WITH ELKS IN HONORING NATIONAL EMBLEM

The lodge hall of the Elks, which is always attractive and a pleasure to the eye, was very beautiful last night in its flag and floral decorations. Old Glory was there in swelling folds and smaller dimensions, and the flags of the Allies, also to the fore, made a rainbow of color. They were suspended above the audience and repeated in a cluster which shrouded the Elks head above the platform and station of the Exalted Ruler, Bert Woodard, who presided and led the ritualistic service.

Across the front of the platform was a frieze of flowers—Shasta daisies, gladioli and smaller flowers—which was charming. There were more red gladioli in tall vases and an elaborate wall decoration as a background for the platform in which crimson Bougainvilleae predominated. It all seemed a very fitting tribute to a triumphant flag, and pride and confidence dominated the expression of patriotism which the meeting developed.

When the audience was seated, the Knights Templar entered in a body, garbed in full regalia and white plumed hats, bearing their banner and the colors. They were seated at the right of the platform and the exercises began with the "Star-Spangled Banner" sung in unison.

Exalted Ruler Woodard made a few preliminary remarks in which he dwelt upon the fact that the Order of Elks is founded on patriotism and for that reason it is under special obligation to publicly honor our national flag in a fitting manner. At his request Chaplain Mills made a fervent prayer, taking his station at the altar.

A flag song was then beautifully sung by Mrs. Frank Arnold, accompanied upon the piano by Miss Mildred Pray. She was warmly applauded and graciously responded with the Scotch song, "Danny Boy." Other musicians having disappointed the Lodge, Mrs. Arnold met the emergency later by singing with patriotic fervor and great sweetness "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean."

A history of the flag which greatly interested the audience was read by W. T. Sprowls, a Knight Templar and also a Past Exalted Ruler of the Elks.

Each Knight was next called upon to state what the Flag meant from his station and each made the appropriate response.

Esquire Fanset was then instructed to build up the floral bell upon the altar with the assistance of the Knights of the four stations, which was done most impressively, one contributing roses for loyalty, another lilies for purity and devotion, another violets for fidelity, and last the stars for unity.

Exalted Ruler Woodard then referred to the service flag, paying a

IN MEMORIAM

GLENDALE WILL PAY TRIBUTE
TO LIEUT. LESTER MEYER
AT SUNDAY SERVICE

A service in which Glendale people will quite generally wish to participate will be held Sunday afternoon at the Glendale Presbyterian church on Broadway and Cedar street at 3 o'clock in memory of Lieutenant Lester Meyer who gave his life for his country June 7th, and who now sleeps beneath the sod of another land than that which gave him birth, the land over which the tri-color of France bravely floats.

In this connection it is of interest to know that Mr. and Mrs. A. Meyer, parents of the beloved dead, have received a telegram from Commander Burwell, of Rockwell Aviation Field at San Diego, as follows:

"I have ordered two of our airplanes to fly over Glendale Sunday afternoon between 3 and 3:30 o'clock in honor of the service in memory of Lieutenant Lester Meyer."

It is also of interest to know that Miss Clara Midcalf, who has been appointed by City Manager Watson to place stars upon the City's Service Flag for Glendale boys who are serving their country, has just placed a gold star upon the flag in memory of Lieutenant Meyer. This is the second gold star which it bears, the first—for Lawrence Davis—having been placed some time ago.

The memorial program will be as follows:

Address—Rev. W. E. Edmonds.
Choir Number—"The Homeland."
Vocal Solo, "Face to Face"—Viola Yorba.
Vocal Selection—Lieut. Clifford Riggs.

TRIBUTE TO AMERICAN SOLDIER

W. B. Kirk calls attention to a clipping from a Lincoln, Nebraska, paper, an address by S. Sherry of Winnebago, Nebraska, at Creighton, Nebraska, on the eve of the departure of the Knox county contingent of fifty-one soldier boys for Camp Dodge, Iowa:

"When I stand in the shadow of the Stars and Stripes I feel that I am standing in a sacred presence; but when I stand in the presence of the American boys in khaki, or ready to don the uniform, I realize that I am standing within a presence more sacred than that of the flag, because you are that for which it stands. There never was a time in the history of our country when the flag meant so much to us and so much to the peoples of the world as it does at the present; and there never was a time when you meant so much to us and so much to the peoples of the world as you mean tonight.

"The kaiser promised Mexico if she would make war upon the United States, that he would give her Arizona, California, New Mexico and Texas. Boys, the tyrant never lived that could tear four stars from our flag.

"The kaiser has sneered at the American army. He asks, 'How is Wilson going to get the American soldiers into France?' We will show the kaiser, not only how we will get you boys into France, but we will show him how we will get you into Berlin. When you have run the Stars and Stripes up over his old palace, make him take off his helmet and salute the flag. After that I want to see the kaiser tried by a supreme court of the world for arson, rapine, and murder in the highest degree; and some means devised for separating his puny, insignificant, blood-thirsty soul from his hated, contemptible, shrivelled arm body.

"Within thirty days after the spirits of all hell will be out in their Sunday best to celebrate the inauguration of a new devil.

"After death I hope that the spirits of all the babes who have been starved to death on account of the kaiser's hideous war; the spirits of all the men and women who have suffered; and the spirits of all the people who have been slain in the kaiser's massacre of the nations, will be given power to chase his naked, miserable, cowardly, bloodstained, crime-saturated soul through the endless ages of eternity and through the boundless regions of space, in a temperature of absolute zero and infinite darkness devoid of one scintillating ray of light, and inflict upon it the punishment he so rightly deserves.

"Your sacrifices will have been in vain unless you remain in Germany until her cannon and other instruments of war are melted and turned into implements of civilization. When this is done a congress of the world must arrange for universal disarmament, the dismantling of war ships, the conversion of cannon into instruments of industrial civilization; and provide adequate punishments for the first nation that makes another cannon or attempts to build another man of war.

"When you return, boys, bring your manhood with you. Bring back Old Glory with its colors unfurled to the breezes of a world at peace and victory inscribed upon your banner.

"After that ask of your grateful country what honors you will, and they are yours when you come home."

ASK THE SOLDIERS TO RIDE

Motorists! Here's another chance to do your bit, and it won't cost you a cent, either. The Automobile Club of Southern California is inaugurating a widespread campaign to give free rides to our soldiers and sailors and will have ready for distribution on Monday, June 17th, from the main offices at 1344 South Figueroa street, Los Angeles, and the sixteen branches dotting Southern California, windshield stickers for all drivers who are willing to give the Sammies and Tars a lift.

"Utilize the empty seat for the fighting man," is the slogan of the moment. Motorists who accept the Auto Club labels are asked to place them on the lower right-hand corner of their windshields and agree to stop for a service man whenever they have room for another passenger, carrying the uniformed guest as far as he wishes to go along the route of the motoring party. It is also understood that those wearing khaki or the blue of the navy may hail a machine displaying one of the Club stickers and invite themselves for a "lift."

Secretary S. L. Mitchell of the Auto Club of Southern California states that all car owners, whether members of the organization or not, are welcome to avail themselves of the "Free ride" posters and get in the game of making it pleasant for the boys who will soon be "over there." Taking into consideration the worthiness of the cause, every driver of a gas buggy in Southern California should placard his car with one of the invitations within the next week.

The stickers are of the same general design as the standard road signs of the Automobile Club of Southern California and bear the wording "Soldiers and Sailors, Welcome to a Ride." Samples of the natty design together with letters of invitation have been sent to all training camps, naval bases and other headquarters in Southern California. In addition to the main office of the Auto Club in Los Angeles, autoists may secure stickers from the branches located at Riverside, Hollywood, El Centro, Bakersfield, Santa Ana, Long Beach, Pasadena, Whittier, Pomona, Santa Barbara, Santa Maria, San Bernardino, San Luis Obispo, San Diego, Visalia and Ventura.

FOR CLUB WOMEN

The final meeting for the club year of "The President's Council" of the District Federation of Women's Clubs will be held Monday at the Shakespeare Club House in Pasadena instead of the usual meeting place in Los Angeles. Mrs. Mattison B. Jones of this city, the District President, will preside as usual, and the guest of honor will be Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, President of the National Federation, who has just returned from the Biennial Convention. Mrs. Herbert Cable, President of the State Federation, will also be a guest.

From 10:30 o'clock to 11:30 there will be a roll call of presidents of clubs and reports of war work. In the next half hour Miss Caroline Kellogg, Chairman of Legislation, will present the initiative measures to be voted upon by the clubs. Mrs. Myrtle Shepard Frances, State Chairman of the Land Army, will speak on that movement and at 12:30 the Council will adjourn for luncheon, at which a talk will be made by Mrs.

(Contributed)

Well remembering the past similar occasions during the year as being most helpful, and in eager anticipation of hearing one more educational program, a large audience assembled at the Pacific avenue school June 13 to witness the closing of the Parent-Teacher Association work for the present term.

To a large extent the wonderful success of this worthy organization has been due to the generosity of A. T. Cowan, publisher and proprietor of the Glendale Evening News, in ever being willing and anxious to promote the good work being carried on by this association, through the generous lending of space for announcements and reports in his interesting daily paper. The P-T. A. owes much to this fact and the president, Mrs. Minnette Sherman, expressed the appreciation of all connected with the organization at the meeting, also voicing the important part the Board of Trustees of the Glendale Grammar schools played in giving their able assistance on many occasions.

Mrs. A. S. Chase in behalf of the parents and friends of the children attending the school, gave heartfelt thanks to the teachers who have so unselfishly given time and strength to the little ones in shaping their foundation of education, making it a glorious, permanent base on which to build their future.

Many a child in years to come will look back with pleasure, appreciation and gratitude, living over again the many happy hours spent in the beautiful little school with their teachers, Mrs. Stone, Miss Circle, Miss Watanabe, Miss Todd, Mrs. Longley and Miss Corey, who with anxiety for their progress, unlimited patience, encouragement and loving kindness cleared away many an obstacle in their path of life.

In the absence of C. B. Raitt, head of the Los Angeles Playground, one of his associates, John Thompson, gave a helpful talk on "What to do with your children during their vacation." Being a father and having had ample experience, Mr. Thompson was able to impart many splendid suggestions on how to keep the children healthy in mind and body during the summer.

Mrs. Robert Yost, with Miss Gertrude Champman as the able accompanist, greatly pleased the audience by singing three beautiful and appropriate songs, each one having met with hearty applause. Mrs. W. C. Alvord, historian, read a report of the year's work. Mrs. Stone, principal of the school, presented the retiring president, Mrs. Minnette Sherman with a beautiful book, a token of love from the executive board.

The president, after again voicing her appreciation of the splendid talent so cheerfully donated by all having taken part during the year and expressing her thanks for the help given through the untiring energy of her secretary, Mrs. Edna Sawyer, and treasurer, Mrs. Frank Ayars, installed the following officers to serve the coming term: Mrs. Edna Sawyer, president; Mrs. J. E. Moore, first vice-president; Mrs. A. S. Chase, second vice-president; Mrs. P. O. Lucas, third vice-president; Mrs. Walter, treasurer; Mrs. Tronsler, secretary, and Mrs. W. C. Alvord, historian.

Tea and wafers were served by the refreshment committee, Mrs. P. Hanning being chairman.

MUSICAL IN HISTORIC DWELLING

The Red Cross tea to be given at the old Verdugo ranch house, Selvas de Verdugo, Sunday afternoon bids fair to be a very notable social and musical event. Mrs. Lindsay, Mrs. Levinge and Mrs. Burton are to be the hostesses and they have arranged for a very brilliant array of musical talent to provide the afternoon program. All are very cordially invited and it is expected that many Glendale people will attend.

The "Merely Amateurs" of Los Angeles will give the following program:

Piano Solo, "The Chimes"—Marion Denovan.

Duet, "Barcarolle"—Miss Helen Sanford, Miss Marion Denovan.

Recitation—Miss Fanita Gage.

Solo, "Lullaby," from Jocelyn, (Benjamin Godard)—Miss Helen Sanford.

Solo, "Valley by the Sea" (Stephen Adams)—Miss Marion Denovan.

Recitation—Miss Fanita Gage.

"September Day"—Zena Horner.

In addition to these young entertainers, some very celebrated musicians have been secured, including Madame Hesse Strotti, Bohemian contralto, Mr. Bowne, the Australian baritone, Homer Guinn and Dr. Loomis.

Tea, cake and sandwiches will be served. Proceeds are for the Red Cross.

In March and April the Secretary of Agriculture, on recommendation of the Office of Public Roads and Rural Engineering, approved 212 State road-building projects involving more than 2500 miles of highways under the Federal aid road act. The estimated cost of these improvements to the States is about $15,000,000. The Federal aid allowed is more than $5,000,000.

Personals

The boys of the Debating Club of Union High, who had a picnic yesterday afternoon at Brookside Park, insisted that their instructor and chum, Professor Root, should accompany them, and he seems to have had as good a time as any of the rest of the boys.

Mrs. A. W. Tower and small daughter, Miss Ruth, of 743 Adams street, who left three weeks ago to spend the summer with relatives in the East, writes that she is having a delightful time. This week she enjoyed a reunion of her family at Anderson, Indiana, at the home of her brother, who is a Major in charge of the medical service at Camp Custer and who had several days' furlough. Today she leaves for Louisville, Kentucky, and later will return to Tower, Indiana, where she will visit Mr. Tower's family. Following her visit there she will spend several weeks with her parents at Mt. Vernon, Indiana, returning home about the middle of August.

PRECINCT CAPTAINS APPOINTED

All the formal acceptances of the appointments as precinct captains as made by Motley Flint, the Los Angeles County Chairman, are now in the hands of Harry L. Howe, City
 Chairman of the War Savings Stamp Campaign. The division of the city into precincts was finally made according to voting precincts and the voting lists will be consulted in obtaining names and addresses.

Between now and next Friday
 each precinct captain will appoint his workers and aides and a definite program will be laid out so that every family will have an opportunity to subscribe. As far as possible no duplication will be made. This may occur in the case of business men who are approached in Los Angeles, but as the pledges are individual, the wife may make her pledge in Glendale. It makes no difference to the committee where the purchases are bought, the point to bear in mind is that every man, woman and child of Glendale must be a part of this great War Savings Stamp movement.

The following is a list of the precinct captains:

- No. 1. David Black, Box 37, Glendale.
- No. 2. Rev. Vernon Cowser, 1450
Pioneer drive.
- No. 3. Mrs. C. W. Houston, 1540

dar street.

- No. 19. Mrs. Luella Bullis, 101

- No. 21. T. D. Ogg, 149 South

- No. 22. Thomas Watson, 102 East
Colorado street.

If there are any citizens of Glendale who wish to aid these workers,
 they are urged to telephone to Mr.
 Howe of the High School or at home
 Sunset 297-J, or drop a note to one of the precinct captains.

Mrs. Sarah McLean Mullen, 1015 appointed publicity manager and through Mr. Cowan of the Glendale Evening News will keep the citizens informed daily of the progress of the campaign.

BANDS ENLARGED AND BUGLE AND DRUM CORPS ORGANIZED

Acting on a suggestion of Gen.
 Pershing an order has been issued increasing each regiment's band from 28 to 50 members. Band leaders having had more than five years' military experience as band leaders will be made first lieutenant; those with less than five years' experience will be made second lieutenants.

Beside enlarging the bands a bugle and drum corps will be added to each regiment. Each corps will include the company buglers of its regiment, and not more than 13 drummers.

FOUR-DAY GARDEN FETE

A Red Cross garden fete that will far exceed in proportions anything of the kind ever held in Glendale is being planned for the last week in July. Preliminary plans for this fiesta, which will last four days, are already being made. The affair is to be under the auspices of the Art and Travel section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, of which Mrs.
 Charles M. Turck is curator, and after considering various places and many plans of entertainment it was decided that "Seek no Further," the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs.
 Turck on Glendale avenue, was the most suitable place that could be found. July 25, 26, 27 and 28 have been reserved for this affair at Red Cross headquarters and the announcement of further plans will be anticipated by all. There will be booths of every description throughout the grounds, splendid entertainers, and everything that will contribute to the happiness of the guests and the treasury of the Red Cross. Elaborate plans have already been made and this event promises to be one of the big affairs of the entire Southland.

BOYS ARE BOYS

Again the attention of the Evening News is called to the destructive practice of some of the boys of Glendale. As is stated in the heading of this brief statement, "Boys are boys,"
 and if they are the type of boys that mature into worthwhile men they are just as sure to have life as they are to have breath. There is a "force" in a boy's make-up that must get vent.

However, boys and their parents and friends should endeavor to use this "force" in such ways that will not mean a destruction of property.
 The boy who knowingly destroys valuable property, whether it be vegetables in gardens, or fruits, or electric light globes on the boulevards, is not a patriot. Such a boy comes nearer to possessing the characteristics of the dreaded Hun than he does that of the true American.

At this particular time boys should be careful not to destroy gardens or property of any kind. This should be a time for conservation.

 ceived a letter Friday from the State Railroad Commission informing him

 jecting to a toll charge, has been continued until August 22.

Introductory work has been commenced in the office of the Evening News on the new city directory for Glendale, which will be compiled as soon as the streets are given new names and new numbers. 2324

CHILD EXAMINATIONS

U. AND I. CLUB ARRANGES FOR EXPERTS TO PASS ON GLEN-DALE BABIES MONDAY

Most mothers know that the Government is deeply concerned about child conservation. Ever since the registration of men in this country
 under the draft revealed the fact that only 66 per cent could pass a physical examination which would place them in Class 1, and the further fact that the majority of the defects then found could have been remedied in childhood, the Government has been exceedingly anxious to bring up the standard of American children by discovering the defects and applying the remedy while the children are still young enough for the work to be effective. June has been named as the "baby month," and under the stimulus of the Council of Defense and other organizations closely affiliated with the Government, child conferences have been held in the various cities, in charge of expert examining physicians, to which parents could bring children from six months to six years of age for examination. These are not baby shows nor are they competitive in any way, and the charge is placed at a figure which will barely cover the cost. Last week
 Pasadena had such a conference, which lasted about four days, at which hundreds of children were inspected.

Next Monday there will be a Child Conference in Glendale at the Tropico Presbyterian church on the corner of Laurel and Central avenues, from 9:30 to 4:30. It will be held under the auspices of the U. and I.
 Club, which is largely composed of young mothers. It will be in charge of Dr. Maude Wilde, Dr. Margaret Clarke and Doctor Chapin, who will be accompanied by a professional nurse, and one half hour will be devoted to the examination of each child. If the applications are so numerous that more time is required,
 another conference day will be held.
 The babies will be weighed and measured, their hearing, eyesight, heart action, lung power, mentality, etc., will be tested and charted, and any defects will be reported to parents with remedial suggestions. The fee for the examinations will be but 25 cents. In Pasadena the conference excited great attention and interest and the revelations resulting therefrom were greatly appreciated by parents. It can easily prove the most important event of the month in Glendale, and for the good of our citizenship it is hoped that parents will heed the wishes of the Government and avail themselves of this opportunity.

SURPRISE DINNER

Mrs. Marie Pierce was the surprised guest of honor at a pretty function which took place at the Colorado street school Friday night, when Miss Waite, principal of the school, and ten other friends in the profession served a course dinner in her honor, followed by a kitchen shower. Mrs. Pierce became a bride not very long ago and is about to go to housekeeping. She will therefore find the gifts serviceable as well as pleasant reminders of the regard of her fellow teachers.

The table was spread beneath a chandelier draped and festooned with asparagus which trailed canopy form to the corners of the board. Shasta daisies were effectively used in floral decoration and all the appointments of the feast were dainty and beautiful, for it was a co-operative affair, each friend of the honoree furnishing a specified contribution to the feast, and the dishes and silver with which it should be served. This simplified the matter and proved such a success that it would not be surprising if more functions of the sort were enjoyed in the future.

The shower furnished considerable diversion as the company guessed the contents of each package before it was opened and usually missed it completely. The ladies for whom covers were laid were Mrs. Marie Pierce, Misses Waite, Chase, Hatch,
 Tifton, Eaton, Cirdle, Mosier, Spark, Ruth Pierce, Mesdames Davis and Robinson.

"THE BEAST OF BERLIN"

Ever since announcement was made by Messrs. Jensen of the Palace Grand Theatre that they had secured for Glendale the great picture,
 "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin,"
 and would present it on the screen
 for two days, viz., Sunday the 16th and Monday the 17th, regular patrons and those who frequent the theatre at irregular intervals have been looking forward to the event. It is said to picture the life of the Kaiser from boyhood to a date just previous to the inauguration of the great world war and to show how his crime against civilization in utilizing his trained millions in a sudden onslaught upon other nations in the expectation of a speedy conquest by reason of surprise, is but the logical outgrowth of low ideals and policy.
 Rupert Julian, who has screened this sensational expose of the life of the Kaiser, who directed it and played the role of the German ruler, is an Englishman who has had a long and successful career on the legitimate stage and before the camera.
 "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin,"
 is said to be the most pretentious of many excellent productions which he has directed and acted. The scenario

Sunday Services at the Churches

WEST GLENDALE M. E. CHURCH

515 Pacific Avenue
Last Sunday night a tribute was given at our service to Lieutenant Lester Meyer, who fell last week on the battlefield of France.

Next Sunday at the 11 o'clock service the pastor will report the amount raised by our church and some of the larger churches of our Conference in the Million Dollar Drive for our University of Southern California.

beautiful tribute to Lester Meyer, whose name has been entered on the memorial tablets of the Lodge, and at his request the audience stood while Esquire Fansen counted eleven strokes of the bell, the memorial tribute which the Lodge pays when death claims one of its members. Mr. Woodard also called attention to the service to be held in the Presbyterian church in his memory on Sunday.

Albert D. Pearce, Past Exalted Ruler, then gave with fine effect the very beautiful ritualistic tribute to the flag, which tremendously impressed the audience and evoked prolonged applause.

The concluding address of the evening was made by John T. Mott, of the Los Angeles Lodge. He said in part:

"The deep significance of the ceremony of building up the bell has its application today. The bell of American liberty is sounding. It is calling to arms and to service every man, woman and child that loves his country. As that bell rings out on the battlefields of Flanders and Picardy, its sweet tones bring consolation to the wounded; it gives courage to soldiers offering up their lives for their country. Its vibrations have at last reached the heart of the enemy and he realizes that he is now attacked by a foe that will not yield until that foe has utterly crushed autocracy. (Applause.)

"True to its heritage of right and justice it has flung its mighty folds across civilization and today it says to the Black Eagle of Prussianism, 'Thus far shalt thou go and no further.' (Applause.)

Exalted Ruler Woodard spoke of the lot donated to the Elks to be disposed of for the benefit of the Red Cross and announced that a decision had been reached to raffle it, off, the tickets having been placed in the hands of the White Patrol team to be sold for $1.00 each. He urged every one in attendance to buy as a patriotic duty to his country and the soldiers to whom the Red Cross is ministering. The meeting closed with the singing of "America" by the audience.

"EVERLASTING" VASE BROUGHT TO AMERICA

(By United Press)

NEW YORK, June 15.—Enon-Sherouan the Just, Sultan of Persia in the days when Omar Khayyam was making vain attempts to sell his verses to the magazines, one day bought an indestructible vase, wonderfully fashioned by a potter of magic powers, for his royal palace at Rhagas.

Long the vase was the wonder of all the royal vase fans and jar specialists who saw it, for it was beautiful beyond all other vases.

Along came the Tartars, acting like Prussians, and destroyed Rhagas, making the royal palace look like the Cloth Hall at Ypres. That was in 1221.

The jar of Enon-Sherouan the Just has just been added to the collection of Macdermid Parish-Watson, 5th avenue art collector, after existing only in legend and tradition for nearly seven centuries. Two pieces of it were found on the site of the royal palace of Rhagas in 1910, and since then other fragments have been uncovered from time to time, and the last piece was picked up in 1914. Since then artists and archeologists have been piecing the famous jar together in Paris, and it was removed from that city in time to keep the modern Tartars from smashing it up again with their bombs.

The vase is said to have a value of $85,000 to $100,000.

Bottlers of soft drinks in the United States may save approximately 50,000 tons of sugar annually by using other sweetening materials, according to investigation by specialists of the Bureau of Chemistry, United States Department of Agriculture. The Bureau of Chemistry is preparing to furnish bottlers with sweetening formulas that will allow the actual sugar content in soft drinks to be cut to 50 per cent or less and at the same time will preserve the customary taste of the beverages. Starch sugar, starch sirup, maltose sirup, and honey are the substitutes used.

Bible Conference of Glendale and San Fernando Valley will be held in this church the week beginning September 22nd, the Lord willing. Dr. A. C. Gaebelein of New York, known the world over as editor of "Our Hope" and one of the greatest writers and teachers on prophetic and pre-millennial subjects, will be the principal speaker.

ery week. With my baker I can produce this bread for you in Washington for your thorough investigation—my bit towards our glorious cause.

B. MIDDLEKAUFF, Proprietor Glendale Baking Co., Glendale, Cal.

In response Mr. Middlekauff received the following telegram from the Food Administration:

10GS RE 60 Govt

FA Washington D C

11:30 AM Jun 14 1918

B. Middlekauff,

Glendale Baking Co.,

Glendale, Calif.

Your wire thirteenth to Mr. Hoover we are interested in your process and wish you would write us concerning it in detail and send us a sample of your flour with complete formula. Thank you very much for the interest shown. Suggest you also see Merritt, California Food Administrator.

FOOD ADMN. BAKING DIVN.

9:32 A. M.

Mr. Middlekauff was called before the bakers' jury Thursday afternoon in Los Angeles and cross-examined as to his product, which he claimed contained 40 per cent wheat flour substitutes. As no evidence was offered which would convict him of misrepresentation, the case was dismissed temporarily with the understanding that a baker's lieutenant who has been assisting the Food Administration locally in the enforcement of food laws, should secure a detailed report on Mr. Middlekauff's formula to be submitted to the bakers' jury, which will then determine whether Mr. Middlekauff shall be called for a rehearing or not.

It is Mr. Middlekauff's contention that his flours are whole flours and for that reason more digestible than the ordinary finely ground and refined substitutes, and that because they are coarse flours they can be sold with profit at $8 per barrel and bread can be made from them and sold with profit at 10 cents per loaf.

Louis M. Cole, Food Administrator for Los Angeles, who conducted the investigation, told the defendant that according to statistics and information in the hands of the Food Administration gathered from unquestioned sources, it would be impossible to make a twenty-four ounce loaf of bread that would retail at 10 cents from anything except wheat flour, based on the current prices for flour and flour substitutes.

"The fact," Mr. Cole said, "that you were selling your bread at 10 cents is one of the reasons this jury is investigating your case. Wheat flour is the cheapest cereal we have because congress has placed a selling price on it. It would be impossible to build a loaf of bread from anything except wheat flour that could be sold at 10 cents retail."

Increased demands for common labor are shown by a recent employment survey by the United States Employment Service. Fifty-three centers have calls exceeding the present supply, while but three cities, all in the West, report a surplus. Normal conditions are reported by 25 cities.

ADDRESS TO THE FLAG

Oh, banner, beautiful and fair,
What other can with thee compare?
Whence cometh thy mysterious power,

So potent in each trying hour?
At thy command they marched away,
Those armies anxious for the fray;
The hills to lurid flame awoke,
The valleys dark and dense with smoke.

What hosts were slain that men might be

At awful cost—exalted, free?

Oh, banner, emblem fair, of peace,
Proclaim that savage war shall cease.
All powerful on the battlefield,
To quiet, mild conditions yield.
From humblest school to highest grade

Be thy omnipotence displayed;
'Till every child the country o'er Shall enter free on the ground floor,
With equal openings to advance,
'Till none shall say, "I had no chance."

Thy power exert 'till there shall be
In realm of thought great liberty;
Nor for a moment tolerate
The slightest join of church and state.
Float thou from spire and minaret,
Nor let a devotee forget That any general favor he Demands he must accord to me.
Thy broad folds never fold until Each one shall worship as he will.

Oh, banner, make thy power home
At pinnacle of lofty dome,
Of capitol at Washington,
And order legislation done.
In House and senate Senate hall,
Just, equal and exact to all.
Hang thou around the court supreme
And forcefully enforce the theme
That high and humble, rich and poor,
To justice there can find the door.

Oh, flag of power, that power is due
To men who gave their lives for you.
You led them where in ranks they fell,
Mown down by shrieking shot and shell.
They followed 'till they conquered peace,
And bade the noise of battle cease.
A fading remnant love you yet,
And you will not their love forget.
For you what service more complete
Than form a soldier's winding sheet?
